

Be Bear Aware and Wildlife Stewardship Campaign

Awards & Acknowledgements
Presented to Center For Wildlife Information

Letter of Acknowledgement March 2003

Presented by Chief Dale Bosworth, USDA Forest Service for educational and conservation efforts.

Award of Merit June 2000

Presented by the USDA Forest Service, Arizona Dept. of Game & Fish and the State of New Mexico Dept. of Game & Fish for furthering Black Bear Conservation and in the management of bear/human interactions.

Recognition Award December 1999

Presented by the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee and the International Graphic Arts Association in recognition for 20 years of bear conservation and education programs.

Recognition Award April 1999

Presented by the Yellowstone Ecosystem Sub-Committee for outstanding dedication to bear conservation.

Congressional Record Acknowledgement November 1995

Entered into the 104th Congress, First Session by Senator Max Baucus for outstanding wildlife educational and conservation programs.

Regional Foresters Stewardship Award June 1994

Presented by Dave Jolly, Regional Forester, Region One for educational and conservation efforts.

Acknowledgement from President George Bush March 1992

Received from The White House for an outstanding record of community service.

Acknowledgement May 1990

Received from Lorraine Mintzmyer, Chairwoman of the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee for the production of high-quality educational materials.

